RE: Letter of Invitation to Chair Symposium
One Earth | One Dream - "Autumnal Green Festival" & "Life on the Edge" Symposium

Dear Ambassador Chowdhury:

Congratulations on your recent published comments in the Financial Times expressing your views that support a culture of peace. Such views reflect the Endangered Planet Foundation's environmental activities and mission. EPF is dedicated to ensuring the survival of the earth through the arts, education, dialog, the dissemination of knowledge and the recognition that advances in technology can provide many of the answers which will lead to a sustainable future.

Upon the recommendation of Joanne Tawfilis and on behalf of our Board and Directors, I invite you to Chair "Life on the Edge" Symposium a part of Endangered Planet Foundation's One Earth | One Dream. In partnership with Festival of Arts, Laguna Beach Magazine, and the Laguna Beach Visitors & Conference Bureau, the Festival will run 2-5, 2008.

Your reputation as one the world's most experienced diplomatic leaders will enhance our "Life on the Edge" Symposium. The symposium will involve an interactive panel of distinguished speakers will discuss resolutions to the many facets of human and natural caused disasters, discussion crucial to the sustainability and survival of our planet. We intend to invite several of the world's most renowned experts to participate in our discussion.

The event will attract a multi-generational audience of ecologically conscious people from throughout Southern California. Sponsors, exhibitors, visitors and participants will come to see, hear and experience events that will be inspirational in our role of responsible stewardship.

We understand that you may be in Southern California in the near future and if convenient, we invite you to meet with our Board. In this way we can discuss specific details and discuss your own specific vision and ideas about speakers, organization and strategic elements of the symposium that are under consideration at this time.

Thank you for your consideration of our invitation. We look forward to a positive response so that we begin our communications and public relations campaign throughout the summer. I enclosed several documents containing general information about our organization and Festival and invite you to contact me with any questions you may have.

Sincerely,
